Web Master report: No report

Young Eagles report: Young Eagles coordinator not present, Since we have not progressed much on the next rally, Rick Rozhon suggested we should probably postpone the scheduled September event.

News Letter report: Jim Haklin lost his internet connection due to the grain explosion at the Union Mills grain storage bins. We managed to work through the issues and get the newsletter out last month.

We Care: No report

Food Booth: Dates for set up and take down have been posted. There's still room for volunteers to sign up for manning the booth. Rick Schreiber and Tony Vendramin installed the new concrete pad for our refrigerators under the food booth tents.

A motion was made to adjourn was made by Jim Haklin.

The President's report consist of pictures from the food booth and the Collings

Foundation's bombers. Unfortunately the NL editor has a problem getting the photos from g-mail to word. He needs one on one instructions to accomplish this task. Hopefully we'll get the photos in next month's NL. In the mean time, enjoy the pictures from Brohead WI, where Rick S and I camped.

Jim Haklin and Rick Schreiber flew to the annual Pietenpol convention in Brodhead WI. The weather was cold and rainy, but a good time was had despite the weather. Here are some photos.

One of the nicest looking Piets we have seen in awhile. Douwe Bloomberg - De Mossville, Kentucky

Another view of Douwe's Pietenpol. Notice the wooden lift struts and cabane struts.

Jim Haklin getting the latest "low down" on Corvair engines form William Wynne, the Corvair guru.

Got this pix of Rick S. burning brats and hot dogs at the food booth. Sure glad the fire trucks are right next door. 😊😊
